

Worldviews

Mid-Term Study Guide

The exam will be 100 points

75% objective

25% essay and identities

Be familiar with all of the following:

- Define worldview
- What is Epistemology
- Know the 7 questions any worldview answers
- Know the categories of knowledge those questions fit into (i.e. Is it possible to know anything? = epistemology)
- Be familiar with the progression of knowledge
- What are the types of knowledge?
- How do we acquire knowledge?
- Define truth (5 words or less)
- A standard must be?
- Have familiarity with the 10 “isms” we covered in class

Possible Essay Questions (2 of these will appear on the exam):

The doctrine of Revelation is central to an understanding of worldviews. How does the doctrine of general revelation answer the nature of ultimate reality?

Are there any of the 7 worldview questions not addressed in the Bible. What if the Spirit of God reveals something to an individual that is in opposition to the Bible?

Sketch out a conservative Christian’s views of the 7 worldview questions